

Calibration that ignores its own flagged points silently drifts to a 100% false-positive rate, while confirming about half of them is enough to stop it.

— discarded, never re-enters the buffer

— prevents the runaway to FPR = 1

